

Originally published September 10, 2006

Third Beef O'Brady's now open

By Billy Bruce
DEMOCRAT STAFF WRITER

Beef O'Brady's has opened its third Tallahassee location, at 1208 Capital Circle SE. Managing owner Jamie Langley says the family-oriented eatery will be community-focused and may sponsor Little League teams and adult softball teams.

"Our restaurant is operated by families, for families," Langley said. "It's good, old-fashioned, wholesome fun for families and anyone who likes sports and quality food."

Beef O'Brady's features large- and small-screen TVs and interactive video games for children. As a family-oriented concept, Beef O'Brady's limits its alcohol to beer and wine only and closes at 11 p.m.